Dedication

When we, the class of 1956, nervously entered our first year of high school at Dallastown, we were soon put to ease by the understanding and patience of Mrs. Claire Eisenhart. As our high school years progressed, we soon recognized Mrs. Eisenhart not only as a teacher but also as a friend and adviser.

As a teacher Mrs. Eisenhart instructed us in English, constantly urging and encouraging us when the way became rough, inspiring us to better literature and grammar, and teaching us the true value of appreciation. As an adviser Mrs. Eisenhart came into contact with us as homeroom sponsor and as adviser to our school magazine, the Beacon. As a friend Mrs. Eisenhart helped us with countless personal problems.

The Class of 1956 therefore dedicates this volume of the Spectator to Mrs. Claire Eisenhart, whose endless patience and untiring efforts have made our school days more pleasant. May the dedication of this yearbook show in part the appreciation and respect to one who so richly deserves all the honor we can afford her.

Board of Education

Four of the five men serving as the executive committee are Norman Reber, Lawrence Hartman, Norman Shermeyer, and Floyd Myers.

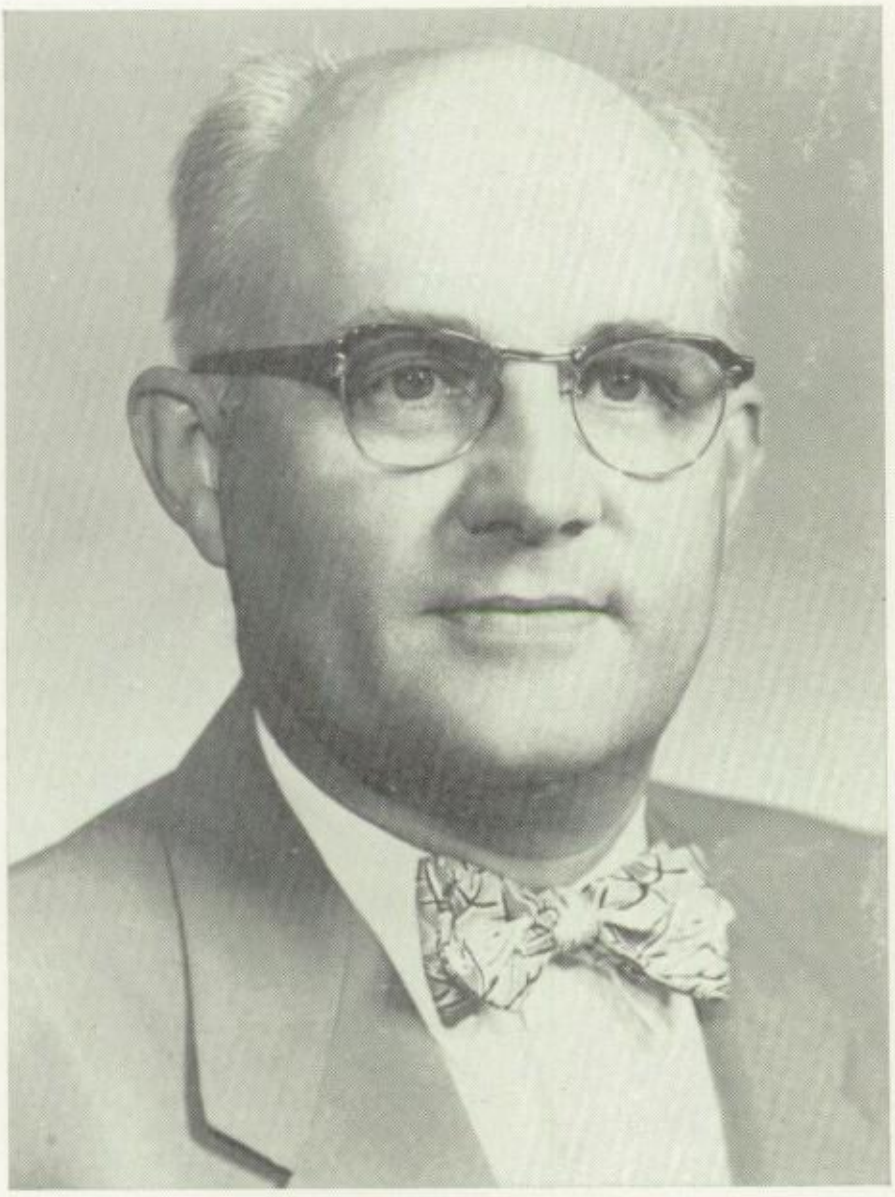
The Board of Education is composed of twenty-five men, five from each of the following districts making up the Dallastown Area Joint School System—Dallastown, Loganville, Springfield Township, Yoe, and York Township. The representation is as follows: Dallastown—H. Logan Fisher, Paul Gable, Philip Rojahn, Clair Shearer, and Norman Shermeyer; Loganville—Leon Decker, George Goodling, Robert Landis, Guy Miller, and Merlin Myers; Springfield Township—Richard Bupp, Daniel Godfrey, Lawrence Hartman, Russell McMillan, and Robert Whiteford; Yoe—Earl Glatfelter, Floyd Myers, H. Louis Neff, Emanuel Taylor, and Clair Warner; York Township—James Gable, Philip Laucks, Daniel Myers, Norman Reber, and Eli Wineka.

To the Board of Education, the class of 1956 extends its sincere appreciation for the many hours spent in planning the new high school building, carrying out the budget, and formulating policies for the district.

Administration

As I glance through some papers in my files, I notice some evidence of a hope I had at one time that you, the members of the Class of '56, would be graduated from the high school after it had been housed in a new building. Conditions beyond the control of local authorities have prevented this. I think it is very noble of you not to be lamenting this delay, but rather to be taking a "Forward Look" to the time when the new building will become a reality for future classes.

You who are being graduated from the Dallastown Area High School represent about sixty per cent of the residents of our area who are being graduated from high schools this season. No room in our buildings could be found for the others. May we count on you, your parents, and friends for continued loyalty while we work toward the completion of the new high school building. And as graduates, may you continue to develop your personalities so that sometime, somewhere, someone may say of you, "When I met him I was looking down; when I left him I was looking up."



DR. HARRY W. SHENK
SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

Dr. Shenk braves the weather to support Dallastown's football team.

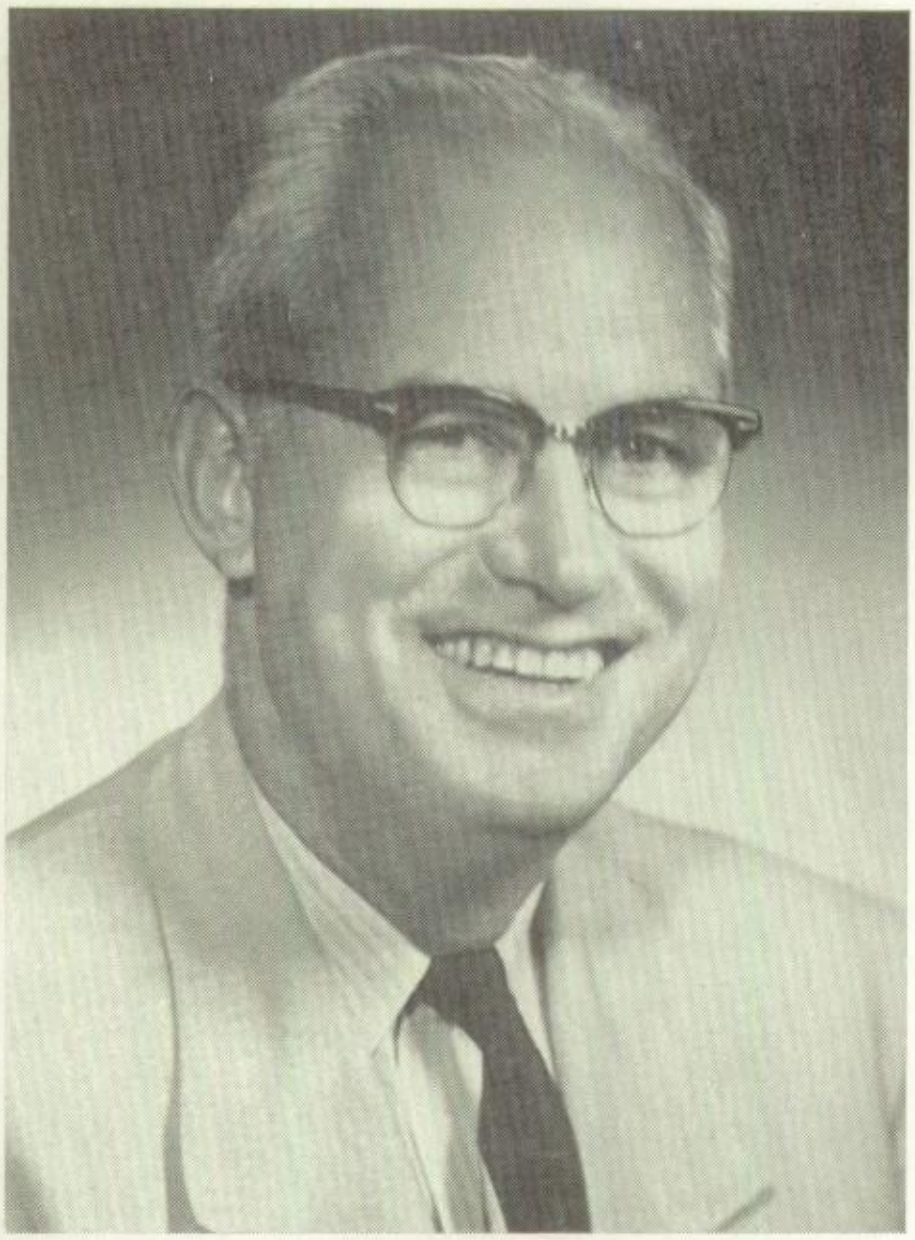
Administration



RALPH N. McSHERRY
Principal

As you look forward into the complex pattern of modern life, you, undoubtedly, are confronted with the disturbing question, "Does life have a place for me?" Looking into your past, you realize there always has been a place for you. First it was the tiny crib and high chair; later a regular place in a regular chair like others. At first you were lost in that big adult chair, but year by year you have been filling more and more of it.

Each year you have been filling a larger place in your family, in your school, in your church, and in your community. This process of maturing means that people expect more of you now than ever before. You are expected to fill a much larger and more important place in the ever-growing complexity of the material world.

The forward look of those who remain at Dallastown Area High School and of those who have guided you here will be one of concern as to how well you fit into this pattern of life. Will your position be one of glory and success or one of infamy and failure?

CLAIR A. TROUT
Assistant Principal

Three words—eleven letters—can often measure the difference between a successful, happy individual and a non-successful person. Through your years of school you have heard much about effort, initiative, and ambition as they are related to grades. Bear this in mind, however, the school of life has its grade card. Your success in life is our happiness; your failure is our disappointment. To assure this success for you, I would encourage you to adopt these three words, "And Then Some." Tackle the task set before you; complete it conscientiously; then do a little more. In the history of man, there has never been a time when the top of the ladder of success was crowded. Climb above the average "and then some." I would pass on to you the challenge given to me a number of years ago by an old college professor. This was his advice: "So live that when you die your place in society will be difficult to fill."

Class History

Class officers Gary Keeny, Charles Hess, Nedra Hoffman, and Doris Arnold confer on a class project.

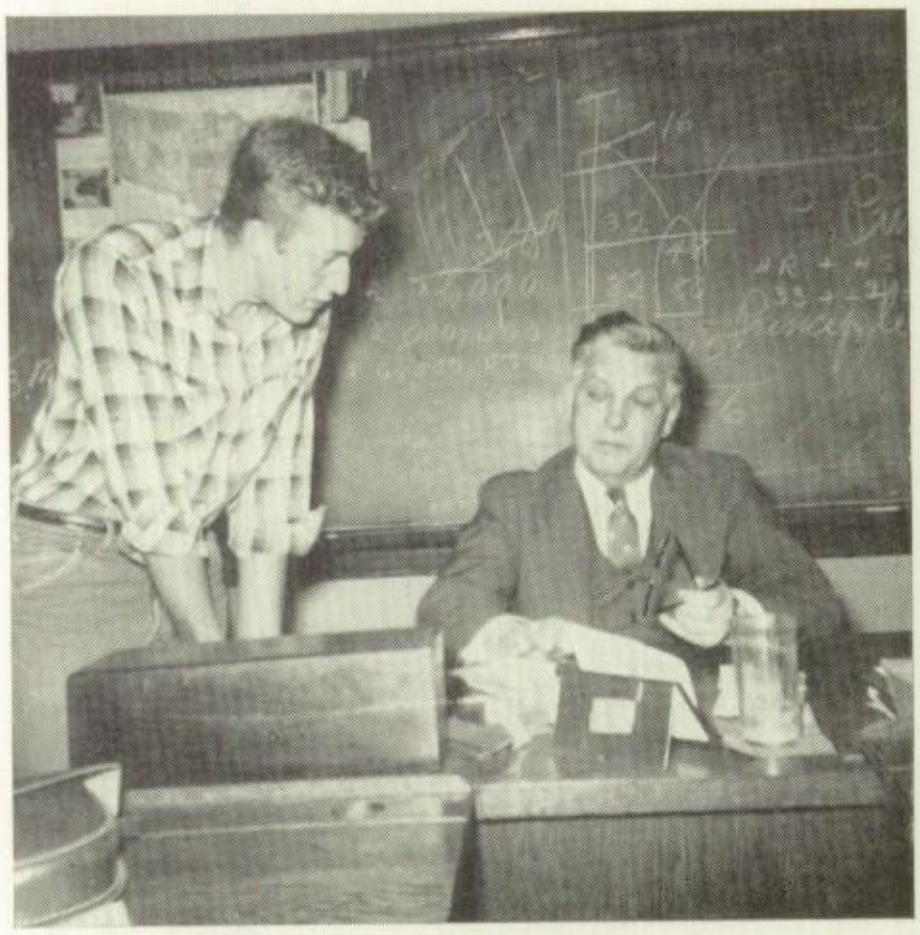
In 1952 we, the class of 1956, entered our first year of high school as freshmen. Chosen as our class leaders were Charles Hess, president; Christine Rojahn, vice president; Barbara Krouse, secretary; and Barbara Shoff, treasurer. Our class adviser was Mrs. Jean Schenck. In the fall of 1952 we enjoyed a hayride and hot dog roast at the Safe Harbor Park. We ended our freshman year with a trip to Hershey Park.

In 1953 we returned to Dallastown Area High as sophomores. Mr. Landis was class adviser and our class officers were Nedra Hoffman, president; Perry Strayer, vice president; Joan Zech, secretary; and Doris Arnold, treasurer. At the close of our sophomore year we again enjoyed a day at Hershey Park.

We proudly claimed the rank of juniors in 1954. Our class officers were Nedra Hoffman, president; Perry Strayer, vice president; Joyce Grim, secretary; and Robert Dehoff, treasurer. Our play, "Father Was a Housewife," was a financial and dramatic success under the direction of Mrs. Elaine Brown. "Moonlight and Roses" was the theme of our Junior-Senior Prom. At the close of our junior year we enjoyed an educational tour of our nation's capital with our adviser, Mrs. Schenck, chaperoning.

Our position as seniors was finally attained in 1955. Mr. I. W. Winemiller was our class adviser and our officers were Gary Keeny, president; Nedra Hoffman, vice president; Doris Arnold, secretary; and Charles Hess, treasurer. Our senior play, "Ghost Tails," was directed by Mrs. Dorothy Richardson. Commencement was held on June 6, 1956, with Seymour B. Dunn, dean of Gettysburg College, speaking. Baccalaurate services were held in Christ Lutheran Church where the Reverend John Martin delivered the baccalaurate message. Class Day was held on June 5, 1956. Our senior year was highlighted with a trip to New York City.

Gary Keeny consults Mr. Winemiller on class financial matters.



Anita Waltemeyer points out interesting Washington, D.C., to Shirley Ferree and Pauline Baer.

One soda for two is shared by Doris Arnold and June Hartman.

Senior Snaps

Nedra Hoffman and Alda Henry enjoy setting up their physic experiment.

Three Roberts – Elphick, Williams and Junkins – are the clean-up crew in shop.

Historic Harrisburg interests Christine Rojahn, Romaine Smith, Pat Leader, Shelva Fahs, and Alda Henry.

Class Will

We, the Class of 1956, of the Dallastown High School, of Dallastown, County of York, and the State of Pennsylvania, being of strong minds, character, and beliefs, do make this, our last will and testament, hereby cancelling and making void all previous wills by us heretofore made:

Doris Arnold—leave my place in gym line to Bernice Aughenbaugh.

Pauline Bear—leave my ancient typewriter to antique collectors.

Charlotte Blum—leave my P.O.D. book to Elaine Dubbs.

Glenn Brenneman—leave all the fun in homeroom to future classes of Mrs. Schenck.

Robert Dehoff—leave my ability to grow a beard to Charles Snyder.

Doris Delp—leave my Physics book to Faye Krout.

Larry Diehl—leave my "goofing-off" in shop to Ronald Markey.

Robert Elphick—leave my hooking school to Dane Loss.

Shelva Fahs—leave my chair in band to my sister.

Shirley Ferree—leave my shorthand book to anyone with a good eraser.

Joan Fink—leave my worked over typewriter to future mechanics.

Mary Frey—leave my seat on the bus to Susie Kerchner.

George Goodman—leave my four years in biology to Dean Bortner.

Joyce Grim—leave my love for hill-billy musc to Rosalyn Wright.

Miriam Grove—leave my pony tail to Ruth Ann Dehoff.

Norma Grove—leave my job collecting tickets at the basketball games to Jean Fink.

Carolyn Hartman—leave my height to Shelby Douglas.

June Hartman—leave the pies I baked in home economics class to Mr. Campanella.

Joanne Heininger—leave my ability to remain quiet in class to Mike Jackson.

Alda Henry—leave my slide rule to future mathematicians.

Charles Hess—leave my car trouble to John Emenheiser.

Paul Hildebrand—leave my gym clothes to Richard Kyle.

Nedra Hoffman—leave my house key to Marlene Sentz.

Thomas Hoke—leave my study hall toys to Larry Frey.

Virginia Innerst—leave art classes to future artists.

Robert Junkins—leave the "old camping grounds" to the eleventh grade.

Edward Keener—leave my eating in study halls to Kent Sprenkle.

Leon Keeney—leave my boat building project to anyone who wants it.

Gary Keeny—leave my "Beacon" worries to next year's editor.

Sterling Kehr—leave my math book to Barry Gohn.

Laura Klinedinst—leave my worries of getting from Yoe to school to Bonnie Jean Fix.

Barbara Krouse—leave my oversized meg to Kaye Ann Strayer.

Arthur Schields—leave the first day of hunting season to Ray Myers.

Charles Shearer—leave my assembly seat to Richard Jackson.

Barbara Shoff— leave the glockenspiel to Sandra Neff.

Teressa Shoff—leave my knack for being stuck with the money-collecting jobs in home room to Ethel Eberly.

Eugene Sindlinger—leave my flat top to Dale Gable.

Kenneth Smith—leave my seat in the cafeteria to Glenn Klinedinst.

Romaine Smith—leave my place in the cafeteria line to anyone in detention hall.

Ronald Smith—leave my curly hair to Mike Henry.

Perry Strayer—leave my financial matters to Terry Knaper.

Jan Taylor—leave my parking space to Donald Daugherty.

Anita Waltemeyer—leave my short walks to school to Susie Strayer.

Robert Williams—leave my seat in noon detention hall to Vernon McKinsey.

Jean Zech—leave my shorthand letters to anyone who can read them.

Joan Zech—leave my records to future caretakers of the Sock Hops.

We do hereby make, constitute and appoint the members of the Class of 1957 to be sole executors of this our last Will and Testament and request that they be permitted to serve without sureties on their bond and that, without application to, or order convey, exchange, any of the personal property of our estate.

In witness whereof, We, the Class of 1956, the Testators forenamed, have hereunto subscribed our names and affixed our seals, the third day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six.

Witness: William Robinson

Notary Public: M. S. Riedel

Class Poem

"Old Father Time" has brought us to the parting of the way,
And we approach the ending of our happy high school days.
Our teachers we will ere respect and honor for their aid,
We'll cherish long the memories and the friendships we have made.

The inspiration that was given will set our standards high,
We'll remember well the high ideals we learned, and always try,
Whatever task confronts us, the utmost we'll invest,
When good, to strive for better; when better, for the best.

To teachers now and classmates, we bid a fond adieu,
Whatever road you travel "Good Luck" and "God Speed You."
What triumphs or rewards we win, due praise we must affix
To what we learned in high school in the class of fifty-six.

Class Song

A fond adieu to high school days,
teachers and classmates too,
The future years will ne'er erase our memories of you.

As we go forth to meet life's tests,
We'll keep our standards high,
And to the fine ideals you taught,
to be true we'll always try.

Whatever task awaits us, we shall strive to do our best.
What e'er it be, we'll do it well and leave to God the rest.

And if success should smile, and crown our lives some far off time,
We'll think of those who strive below and stoop to help them climb.

Throughout the year the homeroom family becomes a close knit group, studying side by side and enjoying the fellowship of school activities. Perhaps the one activity which fosters a spirit of cooperation more than any other is the decorating of homerooms at the Christmas season. Working hand in hand the students of each homeroom strive for the honor of being the best decorated room and the recipient of an ice cream party. Below, to the left, June Hartman and Nedra Hoffman add the finishing touches of ribbons and bells to the door of room 22. To the right Louise Kreeger invites all to see and enjoy the decorations of room 14, the judges' choice as the best decorated room.

Edward Waltersdorff, Wilson Heilman, and Donald Grove put the finishing touches on their history projects.

Glenn Brenneman and Shelby Douglas experiment with the elements in chemistry lab.

Beacon Editorial

Carolyn Raab, Gary Keeny, and Nancy Gray inspect the finished product.

Dallastown students were kept up-to-date on the latest happenings by the eager and energetic Beacon staff. Every week the staff met and the various departments worked on assignments; writing articles, proof reading, pasting the dummy, and finally sending it to York to be printed. There were deadlines that had to be met and all the articles had to be written before a certain day. Endless work was required and spent on each article, but in the end the results of the Beacon made it all worth-while. Our twenty page paper gave the latest news of the activities of Dallastown Area High. The staff was very glad to receive second place awards from the Pennsylvania Scholastic Press and the National Scholastic Press.

Beacon Business

The Beacon Business Staff members started their work very early this year. The advertising manager and assistants canvassed the area soliciting for advertisements and subscriptions. As a result there were sixty-four ads published in the Beacon. The staff was under the direction of the adviser, Mr. Charles Landis, and the business manager, Laura Klinedinst. After the articles were checked by the editor-in-chief and the literary adviser, the typists began their work. They mercilessly banged the typewriter keys and turned out the finished typewritten articles. When each issue was published, the circulation staff began distributing the four hundred and twenty-five papers to the students, alumni, and the other patrons and readers. The staff was kept very busy, but seeing the results in print made it all worth-while. The Beacon Business Staff was composed of the following people: Laura Klinedinst, business manager; Larry Neuhaus, advertising manager; with assistants Joan Zech and Kent Sprenkle; Donna Mitzel, circulation manager; assistants, Hazel Martin and Kay Ann Strayer; typists, Jean Zech, Barbara Krouse, Marlene Fahs, Charles Snyder, and Shirley Miller.

Student Council

Mr. Hays discusses a student council problem with Barbara Krouse.

The active Student Council of Dallastown Area High School is composed of representatives from each class and homeroom and is capably directed this year by President Barbara Krouse and Adviser Robert Hays. The senior class has four representatives to the council, the junior class has three; sophomores have three; freshmen three; eighth grade two; and seventh grade three. In addition to the president, other officers elected are Charles Hess, vice-president; Richard Keeports, secretary; and Mary Frey, treasurer.

This year was a busy one for Student Council. The annual Halloween Dance was again a council project, as well as the Spring Dance and the Friday night "Sock Hops" following basketball games. The Christmas decorations in homerooms were regulated by Student Council and the judging for awards was supervised by the council.

A new project this year was the preparation of a student handbook. Throughout the year general information concerning the schools, songs and cheers, graduation requirements, organizations, activities, and other information that would help to orientate a new student was compiled. This handbook will be available to students at the opening of the next school term.

Library Club

Surrounded by hundreds of books and magazines, the members of the Library Club, under the supervision of Miss Mary Perry, help to file cards, charge and discharge books and magazines, and sign library passes. Dates, stamps, pencils, library cards, books—patience, these are the tools of the skillful staff members of the Library Club.

At the beginning of every school year the Library Club assists Miss Perry in preparing the library for the new year. Books are mended, shelves are dusted, and newly purchased books placed in the proper sections. This year new editions of encyclopedias, Masterplots, and Current Biographies were added to the reference section of the library.

Crowded conditions make it necessary that the library be used as a classroom twenty-four periods each week. Whenever a teacher wishes to take an entire class to the library, Miss Perry and the teacher exchange rooms.

During study halls and activity periods club members are their busiest, for this is the time the library has its heaviest traffic. Approximately sixty-five books pass through the hands of this efficient staff daily.

Miriam Grove and Wilma McCleary keep library records in order.

F. H. A.

Mrs. Frits, Sybil Snyder, Margaret Daugherty, Virginia Innerst, Carolyn Hartman, Barbara Williams, Sandra Markey, enjoy a F.H.A. dinner.

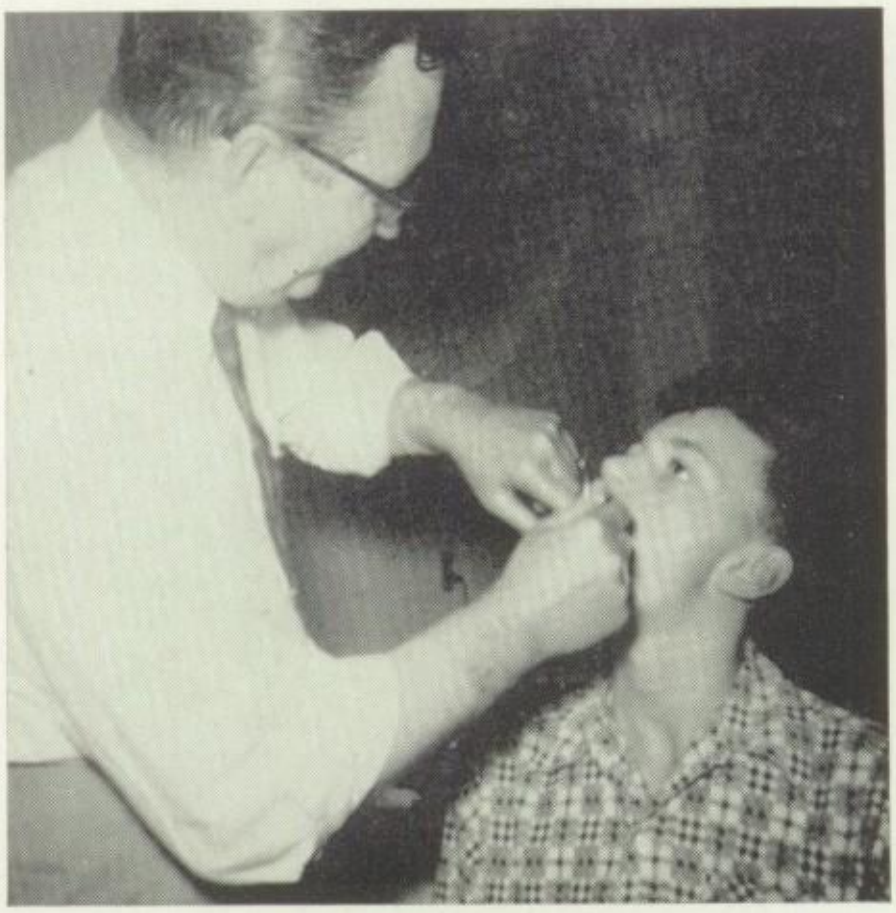
The Future Homemakers of America club members are girls from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes who are interested in the art of fine homemaking. Mrs. Alice Frits, their adviser, teaches them many time saving ideas. Virginia Innerst is president of the organization; Barbara Williams, vice-president; Sandra Markey, secretary; Margaret Daugherty, treasurer; and Sybil Snyder, reporter.

This organization is based on the following goals for which the members strive: preparation for better homes and more democratic ideals in all phases of life, contributions to the status of homemaking education, and a keener understanding of families and people around the world.

In addition to the regular meetings the club engages in other activities. The girls are quite popular for maintaining the refreshment stand at basketball games. They also attend the Future Homemakers of America Workshops.

School nurses working on the theory that a good student is a healthy student, maintain a constant watch over the well-being of Dallastown Area High School students. Both Mrs. Boeckel and Mrs. Grim arrange for and assist the doctor with medical examinations and consults with parents and teacher concerning their findings of these examinations. Correction of remedial defects are encouraged and often arranged. In addition the school nurses also provide emergency care for students who become sick or are injured at school.

Throughout the school year two major medical examinations are given by school doctors. One of these is the general medical examination given to all seventh and eleventh grade students. Dr. Wallace Hopkins, Dr. Logan Fisher and Dr. John Smith are the three medical doctors who conduct these examinations at the various secondary centers. The second examination given to the same two grades is a dental examination. The dentists participating in this program are Dr. John Rojahn, Dr. William Blymire, and Dr. Donald Clingan. Two optional examinations are also available. These are the chest X-rays given to seniors and the tuberculin skin test offered to all freshmen.



Dr. John Rojahn examines the teeth of Sidney Zorbaugh to learn if dental treatment is required.

School Health Program

Carrying out the health program in the junior-senior high school are Mrs. Carolyn Boeckel, who serves as nurse to the Dallastown building, and Mrs. Janet Grim, who is the nurse for other secondary centers.

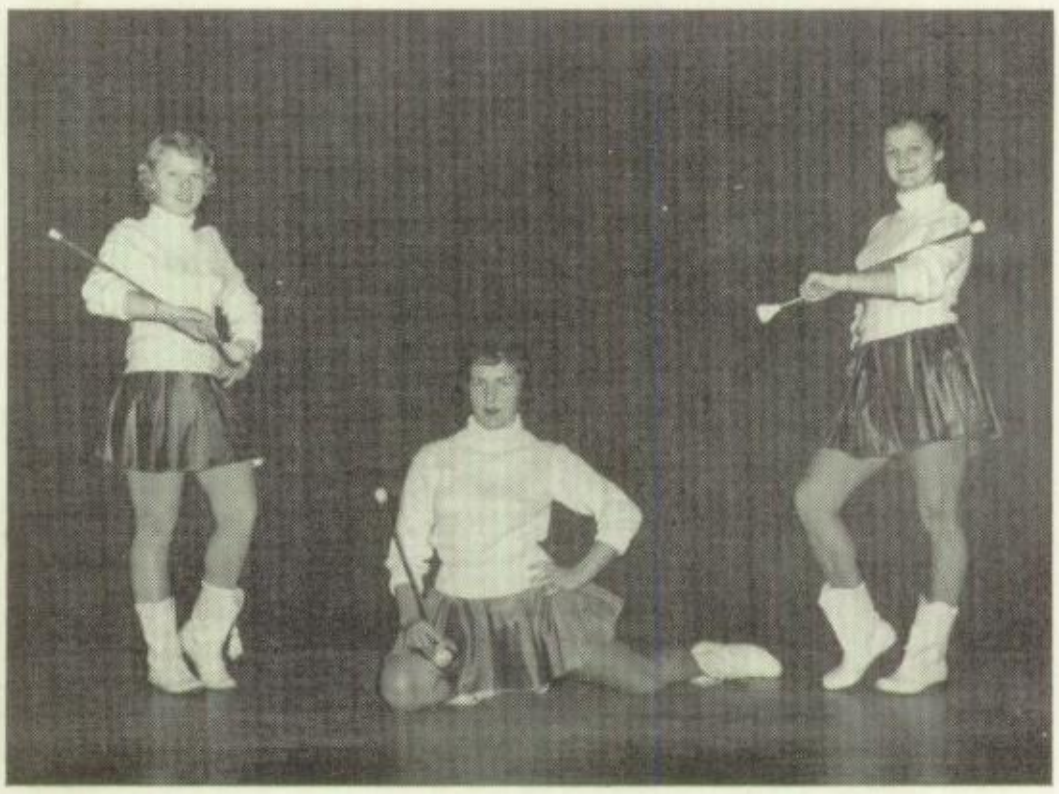
Twirling and spinning batons are well maneuvered by Sandra Gross, Miriam Grove, and Marlene Miller.



The Dallastown Area High School Band was this year composed of thirty-four young musicians under the direction of Mr. Joseph Campanella. Band membership was open to any junior or senior high school student having the ability to play a band instrument. The thirty-four piece band was made up of nine trumpets and cornets, five trombones, three saxophones, one flute, six clarinets, two bell lira, two horns and six percussion.

Throughout the school year the band participated in two types of band activities. Whenever the weather permitted, the band performed at the home football games. Dressed in blue and white, the school colors, it was a great morale booster to the team, the cheerleaders, and the fans alike. In addition to serving as a marching band at the games, the band also participated in the Memorial Day Parade. In its capacity as a concert band, the band presented its annual concert at the "Night of Music" and also played at several school assemblies. From the concert band seven members were chosen to take part in the York County Music Festival, which was presented in the Central High School Auditorium in York, Pennsylvania, on March 3, 1956. Practice sessions for both concert and marching activities were held on Thursday and Friday mornings during activity periods in Memorial Gymnasium.

The officers for the 1955-1956 school year were chosen as follows: president, Eugene Smith; vice president, Barbara Shoff; secretary-treasurer, Karen Leader; and librarians, Lynus Strayer, David Howett, Gary Geesey, Randall Strayer, and Ronald Smeltzer.

Leading the band are the color guards, consisting of Rodney Druck, Linda Holtzapple, Beverly Krouse, Brenda Ahrens, Dorothy Cox, and Laverne Romesberg.

Choral Organizations

The Dallastown Area High School's department of music is quite complex and requires a great deal of coordination and work on the part of Mr. Joseph Campanella, supervisor of music. In the choral department alone there are three choruses: the junior chorus, made up of seventy-six seventh and eighth grade students; the ninth grade chorus, composed of forty-two freshmen; and the senior chorus, consisting of seventy-six senior high school students. Each chorus has one practice period a week.

The repertoire of the choruses consisted mainly of religious, novelty, and folk songs and was presented by each at the annual "Night of Music." In addition, the choruses also participated in the music assembly in April.

Another important phase in the activities of the choral organizations was the participation of a chosen, select group in the York County Music Festival. Seventeen members of the ninth grade chorus and the junior chorus joined with the one hundred five voice junior high school chorus, which represented the majority of the county schools. Eleven senior chorus members sang in the one hundred voice senior chorus at the festival.

Serving as presidents of the choruses for the 1955-56 school year were Barbara Shoff, senior chorus; Darla Mitzel, ninth grade chorus; and Beverly Krouse, junior chorus. Accompanists for the three choruses were Barbara Shoff, Barbara Miller, and Brenda Ahrens.

In addition to the choral work done by the music department, there are several individuals whose music records added prestige to the music department. These individuals competed in and earned high ratings in the York County Forensics Contest. One contestant, Bonnie Jean Fix, received a "superior" rating for her proficiency in both piano and mezzo-soprano solo work. Betsy Reider also received a "superior" rating as contralto soloist. The highest rating given in the county for trombone soloist was an "excellent" rating, earned by Dean Flinchbaugh.

Ensemble and Trío

The ninth grade girls' trio, Beth Heisler, Beverly Fix, and Betsy Reider pose with their accompanist, Barbara Shoff.

Well known for their fine harmonizing are two of Dallastown Area High School's musical organizations. These are the girls' ensemble and trio. Both groups participated in many musical events throughout the year, among which were the York County Forensics Contest and the annual "Night of Music". In the Forensics Contest the ensemble received the highest rating, "superior," and the trio received a "good" rating. In addition to the county contest the ensemble also competed in the District Forensics Contest held at Shippensburg, Pennsylvania. Every Wednesday noon the ensemble practiced under the direction of Mr. Joseph Campanella. Trio practices were held following the close of school at 3:30 p.m. The trio was also instructed by Mr. Campanella.

Members of the ensemble are Ruth Hanna, Shelva Fahs, and Sandra Winemiller, first soprano; Rosalie Koons, Delores Keener, and Gloria Hengst, second soprano; Sandra Gross, Bonnie Jean Fix, and Marlene Miller, first alto; and Louis Kreeger, Romaine Smith, and Alda Henry, second alto. Trio members are Beth Heisler, first soprano; Beverly Fix, second soprano; and Betsy Reider, alto. Barbara Shoff served as accompanist for both groups.

The new addition to the music department of Dallastown Area High School this year is a dance band composed of twelve members and organized under the direction of Mr. Joseph Campanella. In order to find a name for this newly formed dance band, a contest was held. After much deliberation the judges chose the name "The J. C. Wildcats," which was suggested by Helen Strayer.

The shells for the dance band were made in the Industrial Arts Department under the supervision of Mr. Givler. Four senior boys, Lynn Marshall, Laverne Raffensberger, Eugene Sindlinger, and Robert Junkins, did the bulk of the work, although a few of the junior high school boys helped to paint the shells.

"The J. C. Wildcats" made their first public appearance on February 24, 1956, after the Kennard Dale—Dallastown basketball game, when they played a few selections for the sock-hop.

Since practice makes perfect, "The J. C. Wildcats" have started on the long, hard climb to perfection. Practice for them began a few weeks before the beginning of the 1955-56 school year, and every Wednesday morning in activity period their practice session is in full swing in the high school auditorium.

The high school dance band rocks and rolls at the sock-hop.

Junior Play

The junior class play, "Father was a Housewife," centered around Tom Butler, an unsuccessful songwriter. Tom also had the job of taking care of the children, Julie and Doug, while his doctor wife continued her practice. The children's friend, Warren, added to the gaiety. Matters came to a climax when a neighbor woman announced that she had submitted Tom's name to the "Mother of the Year" Contest.

Mr. Steincke and Father clown about a man's cleaning ability.

Father watches Julie and Doug besiege Mother with a problem.

Warren, Miss Osborne and Calvin join Cynthia in singing "An Apple a Day."

Sgt. Lutzfelder checks the validity of Doug's license as the concerned parents look on.

Tom rebelled, went to work, and refused to care for the home. Ann brought her practice and her nurse home and tried unsuccessfully to be mother and doctor. Things looked bright when Tom's agent sold Tom's song, "An Apple a Day," and a famous singer wanted to introduce it. Tom became famous, but he returned to his former way of life and insisted on being a housewife.

The cast included: Barbara Krouse, Julie Butler; Charles Hess, Doug Butler; Sharon Orwig, Dr. Ann Butler; William Robinson, Hank Steincke; Robert Williams, Warren; Lynn Marshall, Sergeant Lutzfelder; Miriam Grove, Mrs. Cranfield; Dreena Krout, Mrs. Ames; Donna Mitzel, Mrs. Norris; Shelva Fahs, Miss Osborne; Sterling Kehr, Calvin Pepper; Barbara Shoff, Cynthia Lewis; Romaine Smith, Miss Flanningan. The play was directed by Mrs. Elaine Brown.

Miss Flanningan checks Mrs. Ames' pulse while Dr. Butler examines Mrs. Cranfield and Mrs. Norris.

Junior - Senior Prom

Couples of the junior and senior classes enjoyed a beautiful evening on May 20, 1955, dancing to the theme, "Moonlight and Roses," at the annual Junior-Senior Prom in the Memorial Gymnasium. Beautifully enhanced by a crystal ball, the gym was decorated with artificial roses climbing over the white trellises, white lawn furniture sitting on a grass carpet, palms and flowers providing the setting for the royal court, and a bird bath filled with roses. Music was furnished by Dick Moul and his orchestra.

The receiving line, which greeted the guests, was composed of the junior and senior class presidents, their parents, guests, and other school notables. In the line were Nedra Hoffman, Charles Vernon, Mrs. Paul Heffner, Donald Wise, Barbara Flinchbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Myrle Wise, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McSherry.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the "King and Queen of the Prom." Max Stein and Norma Jean Krout were elected to that honor by the members of the junior class. James Wolfe and Anita Roth, the retiring majesties, crowned the royal pair. The queen's attendants were Ruth Ann Arnold, Nancy Gohn, Beth Rojahn, and Lorie Snyder. Completing the royal court were Donald Wise, Roger Brown, Walter Romesberg, and Charles Vernon. Young Clare Rojahn and Richard Shoff were crown bearers. After the court was entertained, all joined in a dance given in honor of the king and queen.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria, which was also decorated to the theme, "Moonlight and Roses." In addition to the many roses, balloons gaily adorned the cafeteria.

"Moonlight and Roses" holds many pleasant memories for those who were present.

Mr. & Mrs. Walter Daugherty, Mrs. Richard Shoff, & Mr. George Zech, board members and parents watch festivities.

Their majesties, past and present, lead the dancers in the Coronation Dance.

Senior Play

"Ghost Tails," a three-act farce, combined with the weather to give patrons a chill on the evenings of November 18 and 19. The plot revolved around a ghost whose presence seemed to terrify both the cast and the audience. Shrieks were heard coming from both sides of the footlights.

The effective lighting provided a spooky atmosphere for the low, wierd laugh of the ghost. To add to the entertainment there were many sparkling lines sprinkled throughout the play. All the characters gave convincing performances. especially the ghost with her eerie red glow. Mrs. Dorothy B. Richardson directed the cast of nine.

Deanie watches Polly playfully roll Marty from the couch.

Mr. Lambert threatens to kill Linda, Sue, Deanie and Polly.

Mr. and Mrs. Peters and Linda attentively listen to Polly's telephone conversation.

Stage assistants Anita Waltemeyer, Donna Mitzel, Doris Arnold, Ray Miller, George Roth, and Robert Junkins pose.

The roles of Polly and Marty Peters were delightfully portrayed by Barbara Shoff and Robert Williams. Christine Rojahn, as Polly's best and most trusted friend Deanie, helped to unravel the mystery. Polly's bewildered parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peters, were played by Charles Hess, and Barbara Krouse. Alda Henry, as Sue, a very superstitious colored maid, added much color to the plot. To find the real Linda was a riddle not easily solved, for there were two—Sharon Orwig and Charlotte Blum. The villian's role was taken by Edward Keener, who helped weave the complications. Last, but certainly not least, there was the ghost by Nedra Hoffman.

Row 1—Edward Keener, Robert Junkins, George Roth, Robert Williams, Charles Hess.

The Wildcats of Dallastown ushered in the 1955 football season on September 10 with a victory over Newport High on the Wildcats' homefield. Dallastown, playing the more agressive game, scored twice, early in the second period on a three-yard quarterback sneak by Bill March and late in the third quarter when Lynn Marshall stole the ball from Newport who had been pushed back to their own three yard line by alert Wildcat defensive plays. Paul Eberly booted both extra points. Newport's only score was the climax of a seventy-six yard march which ended all scoring at 14-6.

After a week's practice, Dallastown traveled to Highspire to be smothered 40-0. The Wildcats, unable to maneuver, fell easy prey to the strong Highspire Tigers, who did all their scoring in the first three quarters. Dallastown's deepest penetration was to the Highspire forty-two yard line. Fred Porr, scoring two touchdowns, starred for Highspire.

Returning home, September 26, the Dallastown Wildcats won their first conference game since 1953. Coming from behind, the Wildcats defeated Kennard-Dale 14-7 in a highly exciting game. Kennard-Dale scored first early in the second quarter by marching ninety-eight yards for a touchdown. With the second quarter expiring, the Wildcats marched to the Kennard-Dale twenty-five yard line where Bill March passed to end, Glenn Klinedinst, for a touchdown.

The extra point was added by Bill March on a quarterback sneak tying the game 7-7. In the third quarter Kennard-Dale marched to the Wildcat seven yard line where the ball was fumbled and Glenn Klinedinst, aided by excellent blocking, scooped up the ball and raced ninety-three yards for the winning touchdown. Mike Henry concluded the scoring by booting the extra point.

The Saturday following the Kennard-Dale game again saw the Wildcats badly outclassed as they traveled to Red Lion to be defeated 40-7 by the arch-rival "Lions." Dallastown battled Red Lion on even terms for the first quarter but weakened in the second. Lamont Flinchbaugh snared a pass from Bill March in the end zone for Dallastown's lone score. Bill March plunged across for the extra point. Red Lion's outstanding player was Myles Gipe, who scored one touchdown and passed for two others.

The conference leading Littlestown "Thunderbolts" invaded Dallastown, October 8, to rack up a 30-12 victory over the hapless Dallastown Wildcats. The Thunderbolts struck four times with their powerful backfield in the first half and once in the second to take the game with ease. The two Wildcat touchdowns came in the third and fourth quarters.

Football

The first was the result of a two-yard plunge by Barry Gohn and the second was made by a pass from Bill March to Glenn Klinedinst which netted eighty-nine yards and the score. Neither team made any extra points.

Manhiem Central used the Wildcats' home-field to defeat Dallastown 54-12 on October 15. The injured, riddled Wildcats, missing halfback, Robert Dehoff and quarterback, Bill March, were hopelessly outmaneuvered. Three consecutive passes from Barry Keckler to Glenn Klinedinst in the third quarter and a forty-six yard runback of a fumble recovery by Bill Robinson in the fourth period provided Dallastown's only scores.

The Wildcats dropped their fourth straight 39-21, to West York at Dallastown, October 29. West York found their mark accurately in the second quarter when the Bulldogs hit for nineteen points. The Wildcats tallied three times, outscoring West York in the second half. Glenn Brenneman picked up a fumble and scampered fifty-three yards for Dallastown's first score.

The remaining two touchdowns were made in the fourth quarter, a two-yard plunge by Barry Gohn and an eleven yard run by Norman Seitz. Paul Eberly kicked the three placements.

The Friday night following the West York tilt, the Biglerville "Canners" handed Dallastown a 54-14 trouncing. A block punt picked up by Glenn Klinedinst gave Dallastown a six pointer in the third quarter. The reserves of both teams played the entire fourth quarter. The Dallastown reserves showed future power with an impressive drive that netted six first-downs and a touchdown by Donald Grove. Bill Rojahn passed to Larry Neuhaus for the extra-point.

The final game of the season, played at Glen Rock on November 12, was a 47-13 humbling of Dallastown by the Susquehannock "Warriors." A seventy-one yard drive climaxed by a touchdown pass from Barry Keckler to Barry Gohn provided Dallastown with a touchdown in the first half. Eberly's placement was good. In the third quarter Dallastown's last score of the season was made by a sixty-six yard pass play from Keckler to Klinedinst. Larry Krebs was outstanding for Susquehannock with three touchdowns.

Glenn Klinedinst receives his award for winning a position as end on the All-Conference Team from Mr. Nabors.

Football

Although the Dallastown football squad, coached by Rafe Nabors with assistant coaches Charles Leber and William Kehm, did not have a victorious season, it produced many experienced players who will be returning next year. The Wildcats started the season well; but, due to injuries and tough competition, the Wildcats ended the season with two wins to seven losses and placed fifth in the Laurel Conference. In addition Glenn Klinedinst was elected as left end on the Laurel Conference All-Star Team.

Bill March and Robert Dehoff were co-captains of the team. Other teams participating in the Laurel Conference were: Kennard-Dale, Susquehannock, West York, Littlestown, and Biglerville. Littlestown captured the title and West York came in second.

The Varsity Basketball Squad can look back on only three victories this season, those over Northern Joint, Dover, and Red Lion. Dallastown ran Northern Joint into the ground to the tune of 58-29. The Wildcats gained their second league victory by trouncing the Dover five by a score of 75-38. Glenn Klinedinst poured twenty-nine points through the hoops. The Wildcats are proudest of nipping Red Lion 56-53 in a return contest on Red Lion's floor. In the first encounter Red Lion was on top 73-54. In the spirited second game Dallastown gave a fine performance from the charity line by converting thirty out of thirty-nine attempts. Glenn Klinedinst was high scorer with fourteen points.

The Wildcats played a heartbreaker when Eastern's defending champions defeated them by a score of 63-60. Another close call was the Manchester game. The Bobcats were victorious, winning 50-58. Klinedinst was top gun for D-town with twenty-three points.

The history of the rest of the games was one of defeat. Susquehannock clipped Dallastown 64-51 before a large crowd. Dalen Grove was injured in this contest and Klinedinst hooped seventeen points. Dallastown bowed to Eastern 81-51 with Klinedinst gathering nineteen points for D.A.H.S. West York and Dallastown played on even terms in the early stages of the game before the Bulldogs caught fire and went on to a 58-49 win. Klinedinst featured with sixteen points. D-town was stubborn before succumbing to the Spring Grove Rockets 70-63. Glenn Klinedinst and Norman Seitz hit the cords with twenty-one points each. Central overcame D-town 72-59. Klinedinst and Seitz each tallied eighteen points. A determined Wildcat team was downed by Kennard Dale 54-52. Ralph Stahl hit the hoop for fourteen markers. The Susquehannock Warriors outlasted the Wildcats and won a hard fought game by a score of 75-60. Klinedinst starred with twenty-four points. Dallastown bowed to Spring Grove 76-56 and Klinedinst again paced D-town with twenty-two markers. Hit hard by the Kennard Dale Rams, the Wildcats lost their last game of the season. Knaper helped the boys with fourteen markers, but the scoreboard read 72-49 as the whistle blew.

The Varsity and Junior Varsity teams were coached by Mr. Nabors. However this year Mr. Nabors was hampered by injuries and a small squad. The reason for the small squad was due mostly to the fact that students from the country had no transportation to and from practices. It is Coach Nabors' hope that such transportation facilities can be provided in the future.

Junior-Varsity Basketball

The Junior Varsity Basketball Team of Dallastown High opened its season playing host to Susquehannock. The Wildcats lost by a score of 35-33 in a thrilling game. Kent Sprenkle was high scorer for Dallastown with eleven points. For their next game Dallastown traveled to Eastern. Getting off to a wobbly start Dallastown bowed to their rivals by a score of 52-33. Undefeated West York handed the JV's their third loss outscoring the Wildcats 54-22.

Leading 35-15 at halftime the Spring Grove Rockets romped to a 61-41 win over D-town. Sprenkle's fourteen points were not enough to rally a win against the strong foe. In the game played at Northern Joint the Junior Varsity hit the win column for the first time. Sprenkle's fine offensive performance helped his team to a 39-30 win. The Red Lion's Lions outscored D-town 35-21 in a game played on the local floor. Following this, Central romped to a 62-41 win over the JV's. Sprenkle was high scorer of the game with seventeen points.

Kennard-Dale doubled the count on Dallastown as they defeated the Wildcats 46-23. In the next game David Gable scored eighteen points to lead the JV's to a 43-37 win over Dover. Susquehannock, for the second time in the season, nipped D-town by a score of 52-51 in a game that went into overtime. Denton Stiles was high scorer of the game with eighteen points. Eastern's 37-17 lead at halftime determined the victor in a hard fought battle played on the local floor. The final score was 53-44. Dallastown came out victor in a high scoring game defeating Manchester 80-73. Sprenkle was big gun of the game with twenty-eight points.

The Junior Varsity played a fine offensive and defensive game to edge the Spring Grove Rockets 55-53. Sprenkle was high scorer with nineteen points. Two other players on the Wildcat team reached double numbers in scoring. Red Lion was ahead by one point in the first period but they scored twenty-eight points in the third period to defeat the Wildcats 62-41. Donald Grove was high for Dallastown with nine points. In the last game of the D-town season, Kennard Dale hopped to a 44-39 win over the Wildcats. Sprenkle was high for Dallastown with twelve points.

Dallastown lost their opening game of the season to West York, the defending champions, by a score of 37-14. King of West York was high scorer with ten points. The Wildcats, leading 12-7 in the first quarter, were routed by a hard fighting Central team by a score of 43-30. Bruce Rost was high for D-town with 12 points. The Juniors sneaked past Mt. Wolf in a thriller by a 34-33 edge. The home forces had a 16-12 halftime lead which Mt. Wolf tied quickly in the third period. Barry Keckler was high gunner of the game with thirteen points. Mt. Rose repulsed D-town 31-27 on the Mt. Rose court. The victors took a 13-8 quarter lead and kept it throughout the game. Leik of Mt. Rose was high scorer with 14 points.

The Junior High forces held Susquehannock to just one goal from scrimmage in the first half as they outscored the Warriors 30-17. Barry Keckler potted fifteen points. Red Lion rallied in the second half to nip Dallastown 21-18. Bill Freeman lead all scorers with ten points. Dallastown had a 5-4 margin in the first period, but the hometeam, Central, took a 16-12 halftime lead. The Panthers outscored D-town 53-31. Spring Grove trailed the Wildcats by five points in the first period, but battled back to rout Dallastown 37-25.

Dallastown defeated Susquehannock for the second time in the season by a score of 35-21. Keckler and Kohler divided 20 points to feature for D-town. An explosive first half proved instrumental in Mt. Rose's 56-29 romp over Dallastown. Terry Leik was top point producer with twenty-six points. West York defeated Dallastown 58-32 after holding only a one point lead in the first period. McWilliams of West York scored sixteen points.

The Junior High team was coached by Mr. Henry this year. This is his second year in coaching this team. He had a large group of seventh and eighth graders whom he conditioned for future teams. Leaving Junior High to go into Senior High will be Barry Keckler, Donald Kohler, Laverne Romsberg, James Weitkamp, Bruce Rost, Gary Strickler, and George Bender.

BASEBALL

Dallastown Area High School opened its 1955 baseball season by playing two exhibition games with West York High School. On April 7 the Wildcats entertained on the local diamond and gathered a 5-1 victory. On the West York playing field the April 10 game ended in a 4-4 tie.

The first game of the regular ten game competition in the Southern Division of the York County Scholastic League was held April 17. Dale Wise tossed a two hitter and struck out nine to lead Dallastown to a 4-3 win over Eastern B.

On April 22 Dallastown was handed a 5-4 setback at the hands of Red Lion. The Lion's pitcher, Larry Warner, allowed only five hits, a pair by Glenn Brenneman and one each by Richard Luckenbaugh, Robert Delp, and Glenn Klinedinst.

Glenn Klinedinst crosses first base safely after a well placed hit.

Five runs in the fourth inning provided D-town with a 5-1 decision over Lower Chanceford on April 27. Dale Wise fanned fourteen players and assisted Charles Shearer, Glenn Brenneman, Glenn Klinedinst, and Gary Strayer in gathering six hits.

With Red Lion and Dallastown running neck and neck for the Southern Division crown, the Wildcats came through with a 1-0 edge over Susquehannock in a well played game. Luckenbaugh fanned five and gave up only three hits. The lone run came in the second inning as Brenneman doubled, went to third on a fielder's choice, and scored on a wild pitch.

On May 5 Dallastown toppled Kennard Dale 10-6 to retain second place in the league. Luckenbaugh fanned eleven batters as Roger Brown, Shearer, Klinedinst, Delp, and Strayer sparkled the hitting with nine hits.

With the season half over D-town trailed Red Lion by one game. On May 10 the Lions and Wildcats clashed in a seventh inning battle with the Lions coming out the victors 2-1. Klinedinst gathered two hits for the Wildcats.

Dallastown leveled Lower Chanceford 7-1 on May 16. Luckenbaugh fanned ten batters and gave up only three hits. Klinedinst and Delp each had a pair of hits for D-town.

On May 17 the Wildcats' Wise turned in a no-hit performance, but, because of two walks and two errors in the fifth inning, Susquehannock gathered two runs. Behind the Wildcat hitting was Terry Knaper, who had two hits and led the Wildcats to a 4-2 victory.

Dallastown was handed its third setback on May 19 and lost all chances for the leadership in the Southern Division as Eastern B defeated the Wildcats by a 3-2 score. D-town took an early lead on a second inning homer by Brenneman and added a run in the fifth. However the stubborn Eastern B team came up with three runs in the seventh for the victory.

As a result of an 8-6 loss to Kennard Dale on May 24, the Wildcats ended their season tied for second place with Eastern B. The season's record was six wins to four losses and Red Lion retained the Southern Division Crown.

Track

The Dallastown Area High Track Team, with a full season before them, started strongly with a 57-35 win over Spring Grove in dual meet. Grove won the mile without too much competition from his rivals. Barry Gohn came through to win the 100 yard dash and the Wildcat relay team also came in first.

Bouncing back again, the Wildcats posted a 51-38 win over West York. Fred Kerr, county champion miler, won the mile and half mile but Grove came in a close second. Gohn again won the 100 yard dash and the Wildcats also won the broad jump and high jump.

D-town scored a decisive win over Susquehannock and Kennard-Dale in a triangular meet, scoring 53 points out of a possible 83. Grove again posted honor in the mile and half mile, and the mile relay team also came in first. The Wildcats also placed in high jumping and broad jumping. Paul Kyle won the shot put, while Paul Eberly placed second in the discus throw.

The Wildcats, under the coaching of Charlie Leber, then traveled to Columbia. Here Dallastown was handed its first defeat. Dallastown again placed second in a triangular meet with Biglerville and Northern Joint. D-town collected 35 points and Dalen Grove captured first in the mile and half mile.

Paul Eberly practices proper throwing technique for discus.

With much of the track season over, Dallastown traveled to York for the county meet. They placed third behind Red Lion and Central. In this meet Dalen Grove was second in the mile and was the only man who gave Fred Kerr of West York any competition. Grove placed third in the half mile.

After the York County Meet, Dallastown lost a close one to their rivals, Red Lion. The score was 44-41. To the surprise of everyone, the mile relay team, composed of Robert Hoover, Dalen Grove, Norman Seitz, and William March, defeated Red Lion's York County Championship team.

The Wildcat relay team also placed fifth out of twenty-two teams at the Sheppard Relays at Hanover. Dalen Grove placed second in the mile at Shippensburg Invitational Meet and third at the District III Meet at Lancaster.

To top most of his running honors Grove defeated Fred Kerr of West York in the half mile run at Columbia. Dalen's time was two minutes and seven seconds. It was the only defeat administered to Kerr in the 1955 season.

Paul Eberly, a sophomore, threw the discus 120 feet 2 inches to become York County Scholastic Champion. Paul is looking forward to breaking the county discus record of 129 feet 5 inches set in 1952 by Paul Dehoff, also of Dallastown.

Senior High Track

Mr. Leber, coach of the Dallastown track team, held intra-squad track meets to condition his teams for county competition. On March 24, the Blue and White teams started their intramural meets. The Blue team included sophomore and junior boys and the White team included the freshmen and seniors.

The Blue team took first place in eight of the ten track and field events. They defeated the White 61-25. Barry Gohn won both the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes. Norman Seitz captured the 440 and Dalen Grove won the mile and half mile. Gohn also won the broad jump and Paul Kyle won the discus throw and the shot put.

The track team was selected on March 30, and the Blue and White clashed for their third dual meet. Dalen Grove won the mile and half mile and Barry Gohn captured the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Norman Seitz won the high jump and Paul Kyle won the discus and the shot put.

Meets were also held between the sixth and seventh grades of Dallastown and the sixth and seventh grades of Loganville.

Junior High Track

Donald Kohler breaks the tape in the 100 yard dash.

Donald Kohler's excellent running and twenty-one points given to them by the Junior High girls helped the Dallastown Junior High team to win the York County Track Meet for the first time in its history. Kohler won the seventy-five and the two-twenty yard dashes with the winning times of 08.4 seconds and 24.8 seconds respectively. Bruce Rost was in a triple deadlock for high jump honors with Kennard-Dale and Mt. Rose. William Reno was tied for fourth in the high jump with West York. The 440 and 880 yard relay team placed second. Donald Kohler added more points onto the D-town score by placing second in the broad jump, missing first place by only three-fourths of an inch. Ralph Kyle placed fourth in the broad jump.

The Dallastown Junior High participated in a few track meets prior to the York County Meet. They also took part in many intra-squad meets which helped them to prepare themselves for the York County Meet. Mr. Leber and Mr. Kehm coached the team.

Early in April many girls representing the Dallastown Senior High Girls' Track Team were outdoors conditioning for the York County Track Meet. Practices were held in the afternoons after school. Miss Peters, coach and physical education teacher, held intra-squad and inter-scholastic meets to help the girls prepare for the big competition. For the fifty yard dash a senior, Donna Fake, and a junior, Nedra Hoffman, were chosen. Members of the fifty yard relay team were Christine Rojahn, Nedra Hoffman, Shelva Calp, and Donna Fake. Christine Rojahn and Joan Zech were selected to throw the baseball, while Carolyn Raab and Joan Zech were chosen for the basketball throw. Business managers were Barbara Shoff and Jean Zech.

The senior high girls did not win the county meet, but they placed in three of the four events. The relay team placed third, Donna Fake placed fourth in the fifty yard dash, and Carolyn Raab placed fourth in the basketball throw. Alternates, who also went to the meet, were Barbara Krouse, Joyce Heindel, Kaye Ann Strayer, and Margretta Raver.

Junior High Track

Norma Zarfoss practices for her record breaking basketball throw.

On May 6, 1955, the Dallastown track teams traveled to York for the County Meet. The junior high girls scored twenty-one points to capture their division championship. These points helped the junior high boys to win their division championship also. It was the first time in many years that the Dallastown Junior High won the meet.

Miss Peters, girls' coach, chose the following team: fifty yard relay team, Ruth Ann Dehoff, Beverly Krouse, Marlene Miller, and Brenda Barley; baseball throw, Marlene Miller and Ruth Ann DeHoff; basketball throw, Norma Zarfoss and Ruth Ann Dehoff.

Results were very good at the meet; for the fifty yard relay team came in second, and Marlene Miller placed second in the fifty yard dash and Brenda Barley fifth. Marlene Miller was also successful in throwing the baseball. She placed first, while Ruth Ann Dehoff captured fourth place. To clinch the twenty-one points Norma Zarfoss captured first place in the basketball throw.

Throughout the excitement of the football and varsity basketball games can be heard the "Fight, team, fight" cry led by the varsity cheerleading squad. Work for this squad begins in the spring at the annual tryouts. After the squad is selected, practices begin and continue throughout the summer. Fall finds them ready for the football season and ensuing basketball games. Another important duty which falls to this squad is the organization of pep rallies prior to important home football and basketball games.

Behind the scenes the varsity squad conducts practices and trains the junior varsity squad. New techniques and cheers are also studied and originated in an effort to keep the school cheers lively and fresh. One of the most interesting experiences shared by this squad was attending a cheerleading clinic held in Shippensburg, Pennsylvania, to study new cheering techniques and to share experiences with other squads in attendance from a three state area. The clinic was under the direction of Mr. Lawrence R. Herkimer, executive secretary of the National Cheerleaders Association.

Kaye Ann Strayer, Nancy Gray, Marlene Miller, and Gloria Hengst learn new techniques from Lawrence Herkimer at cheerleading clinic.

Varsity and junior varsity squads perform a formation cheer between basketball games.

Leading the cheers during the junior varsity basketball games is the junior varsity cheerleading squad. Squad leader is Karen Leader; other members are Marlene Miller, Bonnie McGready, Faye Krout, and Donna Ness.

Members of the squad are chosen at spring tryouts and are trained by the varsity cheering squad. Practice sessions are held in the fall prior to the basketball season and continue throughout the season. In addition to their cheering duties, the junior varsity cheerleaders assist the varsity squad at pep rallies and train the junior high squad.

During the basketball season the junior varsity squad accompanied the varsity squad to the Cheerleading Clinic held at York High School, where the York High cheerleaders served as hosts to cheerleaders from many county schools. All phases of cheerleading were discussed in an effort to improve cheerleading techniques. Progress of this sort is important to the junior varsity cheerleaders, for these cheerleaders are the most likely candidates for the varsity cheerleaders of tomorrow. Instructions for this squad are directed by Mrs. Jean Schenck, cheerleading coach.

Perhaps one of the most enthusiastic responses to a call for participants for a school activity is made by the junior high school girls when the tryouts begin for junior high cheerleaders. This past fall approximately fifty girls responded to Mrs. Jean Schenck's request for candidates for the coveted positions on the junior high cheerleading squad. Showing the most promise and ability, and chosen to the squad were Rosalyn Ness, who was appointed squad leader, Darlene Stump, Jo Shearer, Audrey Hoke, and Mary Jane Blymire.

The junior high squad cheers at all home junior high basketball games and accompanies the team to those away games which are played at night rather than in the afternoon. Although the youngest squad in both years and experience, the junior high cheerleading squad experiences the most difficult cheering situation. Its job is made difficult by the much smaller student attendence at junior high games due to the fact that many students who ride buses to school are unable to attend the four o'clock games.

Mary Jane Blymire, Jo Shearer, Beverly Krouse, and Rosalyn Ness practice in the hall after school.

WITH GRADUATION HERE, we seniors, leaving forever the protection of Dallastown Area High School, venture forth on paths unknown. Now looking forward to the future for which we have been prepared, we close this volume of the Spectator and bravely set out to face the future.

APPRECIATION

The senior class of Dallastown wishes to extend sincerest thanks to all those who have made this yearbook possible.

We extend our special thanks to Mrs. Schenck for her fortitude and excellent supervision of the literary staff, to Mr. Winemiller for his capable direction of the financial affairs, to the staff for their fine work, to the business advertisers and patrons for their financial support, and to the administration for their cooperation.

We also extend special thanks to Harry R. Lenker and his staff for the fine architectural work, to York Engraving for the excellent engravings, to Stewart's Photo Shop for good service, to Kurtz Bros. for cooperation and assistance in laying out details for the yearbook, and to Henry M. Blatner for his cooperation and willingness to take pictures at our convenience.
